Company Overview

Kingsland Farming was founded in 2015 by Jaco Rautenbach along with a very small investment and few people. Today it is a well-known business owing its success to sincere commitment, dedication and hard work as well as ensuring high quality services. Each department is led by a highly qualified team in order to ensure the best quality products and services are provided every time, also providing a competitive edge in the industry.

Jaco has been known for tree felling in the Tzaneen area for several years, but in 2015 the need for his services expanded so significantly that it resulted in the registration of Kingsland Farming as a company. The name Kingsland Farming, chosen by Jaco, came after asking God for His blessing over the company and making the promise that God will always be the King of the company. Today Kingsland Farming is still growing dynamically every day and because of His blessing it is one of the most preferred and biggest tree felling companies in the Tzaneen and surrounding area and that is why "In God we Trust"

Despite the competition, Kingsland Farming has a large customer base due to the unwillingness to compromise on quality and timely delivery. The quality service and pricing structure provided to customers are unbeatable.

As a company Kingsland Farming aspires to keep on working hard and growing to serve more customers in order to become a force to be reckoned with in the forestry industry. Today Kingsland Farming stands very strong in the industry with more than 450 clients which vary from the single house owner to big company like ZZ2, Westfalia, Hans Merensky Holdings, Kubu Group, Lombard Agri and Lombard Property, Northern Security, Tzaneen Blue Berries & ATKV Resorts. Kingsland Farming is known as the Professional Tree Felling Legend. Our highly specialized tree felling team consists of 10 people, 2 team leaders, 4 well trained chainsaw operators, 2 trained rope men and 2 drivers. They specialize in trees close to buildings and structures, plantations, power lines and any other work that involves tree felling.
